Ms. Dukes, In my haste to respond to your earlier email to waive the ten day notice requirement and to forward you my proposed order, I overlooked your well-written proposed order. Your proposed order addresses all the issues and is very thorough. I might point out in reference to Finding of Fact No. 1 on page 9 that the Applicant is more accurately a limited liability company. Please let me know if you have questions. Thank you.

Good Afternoon Mr. Elliott,

Thank you for providing a copy of your proposed order and for your willingness to waive the ten (10) day timeframe for the filing of exceptions. I acknowledge that we established Thursday, November 19, 2020 as the date to submit your proposed order and would have not intended for you to submit it earlier than discussed. I apologize for the change and hope it did not cause any confusion.

Just for clarification, do you take any exception with the proposed order sent in my initial email? You can abide by the deadline of tomorrow morning at 9:00 a.m. if you choose. However, I want to be certain I am interpreting your email correctly. Thanks for your attention to this matter.

With warm regards,

Jerisha Dukes, Esq.

Subject: DN 2020-177-C: Review of Proposed Order

Dear Counsel:

I hope this email finds you doing well!

S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 103-841(C) (2012) provides that the hearing examiner of a proceeding not heard before a majority of Commissioners must provide a proposed order to the parties and allow for ten (10) days for filing of exceptions. Pursuant to this regulation, I am providing each party in this docket with a copy of the proposed order. (See attached.)

As this docket is up for Commission action during the November 18, 2020 Commission Business Meeting, please advise if you are willing to waive the ten (10) day time frame for filing of exceptions. Waiver of the ten (10) day timeline allows for the Commission to act on this docket at the upcoming meeting.

If you are willing to waive the ten (10) day time frame, please review the attached proposed order and file any exceptions no later than 9:00 am on November 18, 2020. Post your exceptions to DMS and also email all parties of record. Thank you for your understanding in working to fulfill this request. The Commission greatly appreciates your cooperation!

In accordance with Commission practices and procedures, should you respond to this email, please remember to hit "reply all" so that there is no inadvertent, accidental ex parte communication in this Docket, regardless if such procedural communication may be exempt by statute.

With warm regards,
